AADA NEWS AND UPDATE #1

JANUARY 13, 2022

THE SUPREME COURT STAYS OSHA'S "VAX OR TEST" MANDATE; RULE IS HALTED

The U.S. Supreme Court has stayed indefinitely the Occupational Safety and Health Administration's (OSHA) COVID-19 Emergency Temporary Standard (ETS). The ETS had mandated that employers with 100 or more employees require that those employees to either (1) be vaccinated against COVID or (2) produce negative COVID tests on a weekly basis.

The Supreme Court's ruling effectively puts all ETS compliance requirements and deadlines on hold for the foreseeable future.

AADA will keep you updated on future developments.

AADA CONVENTION JUNE 12-15, 2022, IN BENTONVILLE

We are thrilled to announce that AADA's 2022 Convention is staying in Arkansas and will be held June 12-15 in beautiful Bentonville. The host hotel will be the 21c Museum Hotel just off the Bentonville square.

The goal of this year's convention is to build on the success from last summer in Hot Springs. We promise first class speakers as well as fun and fellowship for the entire family.

Save the date now, and more details will follow soon.
